CASA FOR CHILDREN OF KLAMATH COUNTY

Have you ever said someone should help? You can make a lifelong difference for a child.

Every year, through no fault of their own, children in Klamath County are removed from their home due to abuse or neglect. CASA for Children of Klamath County, a non-profit program, trains volunteers to advocate for foster children – children with irresistible grins, vivid imaginations and incredible potential. All of these children share one unfortunate commonality – each one has been a victim of abuse or neglect.

CASA ensures these children do not fall through the cracks of an overburdened system. Our volunteers serve as the eyes and ears of the court, affording judges, who will ultimately decide the permanent placement for a child, the opportunity to make those decisions based on all of the information. Maybe, most importantly, our volunteers are a consistent caring adult in a child's life until the child is returned home or adopted into a safe and permanent home with a loving family.

You can make a lifelong difference for a child by joining CASA's Circle of Hope. The Circle of Hope monthly giving program is designed to help you make tax deductible donations without having to remember to take action every month.

To get started on your Circle of Hope membership, simply fill out the bottom of this form and return to CASA for Children, 403 Pine Street, 3rd Floor, Klamath Falls, OR 97601. Circle of Hope members are acknowledged for their commitment to children. Please let us know if you would like your gift to remain anonymous.
